

Happy Birthday, Stephen!

Stephen you're 70, can it be true?
Who would have thought it could happen to you?
You've been our young neighbor for lo, all these years
Now you're officially older, we fears.
Still young at heart Stephen you always will be
Your funny jokes always fill our hearts with glee
A wonderful host and a super granddad
A more helpful neighbor we never have had
You shine on the links—golf's your favorite game
And no one roots harder for old Notre Dame.
Happy Birthday dear Stephen, may you stay in top form
Our best wishes always, Anita and Norm.
